Brian,

I wanted to let you know that I received your voice mail from yesterday and will be looking at the numbers/tables you referenced in the message. I will be in touch once I have had a chance to take a closer look and let you know if I have any additional questions and what the best path forward for the revised submittal will be.

Thanks to you and your team for looking into the current modeling and providing the update. Please let me know if you have any immediate questions or concerns.

Ashley
